826 Seattle

Position: Graphic Design Intern

Availability & Time Commitment:

Summer: July and August—20 plus hours a week as available

Academic year: One or more semesters; 10 hours minimum per week

We're flexible and willing to work around an existing commitment.*

826 Seattle is looking for creative design interns. This position is unpaid or for college credit only. Applicants seeking college credit are responsible for submitting necessary information fulfillment requirements to 826 Seattle.

Description

826 Seattle is fronted by an outreach and gift store, the Greenwood Space Travel Supply Co, that sells space travel-themed gifts and novelties in custom designed packaging. The overall style of the store is dictated by an established stylesheet that emphasizes mid-century, modernist design, executed with an innovative 21st century twist and definable, unique sense of humor.

The ideal design intern is an innovative and creative thinker, has a passion for typography and truly extraordinary design ideas, an appreciation for nuanced and intelligent humor, and the ability to work in a fast-paced, frenetic environment.

Duties/Responsibilities

- Provide art and graphic design support for the organization
- Work with the Store Manager to conceptualize new products
- Design packaging and labels for store products
- Assist in creating signage and web materials for organization. Includes store needs, special events, programming materials, and PR announcements
- Label and assemble store product with the utmost attention to detail
- Other related activities to support the work of 826 Seattle on an as needed basis

Ideal Qualities

- Skilled at Adobe CS: Specifically In-Design, Photoshop, Dreamweaver, Illustrator
- Passion for seeing an idea through from concept to final product
- Versed in both print and online design, experience with product design preferred
- Understands our branding and able to take feedback and constructive criticism well
- Responsible, self-starter, task-oriented, and resourceful
- Graphic design, design, and visual communications or related majors preferred
